

ALAN D. KOVITZ RETIRED PRINCIPAL

Business, Estate Planning, Commercial Real Estate Transactions, Mergers and Acquisitions

With over fifty years' experience as a practicing attorney, Alan Kovitz concentrates in commercial real estate, financing, loan transactions, corporate law, and estate planning. He assists clients with a variety of real estate transactions, including the negotiation, sale, purchase, and leasing of multi-million dollar commercial and multi-family real estate properties.

Alan has represented private individuals, closely held businesses and publicly-traded companies in numerous transactions. He also represents clients in the purchase and sale of businesses, including the structuring of these transactions.

Among Alan's many strengths as an attorney is his ability to build lasting relationships with his clients and to help them navigate the myriad of issues faced by business owners. He is also a seasoned negotiator. In addition to his broad transactional practice, Alan has also served as an arbitrator in the Cook County, Illinois arbitration program.

He has received an AV Preeminent Peer Review Rating from Martindale-Hubbell; their highest peer rating for ethical standards and professional ability.
