

CHRISTOPHER E. RALPH PRINCIPAL

Community Association Law, Litigation, Insurance Defense Litigation

Christopher Ralph's practice focuses on the representation of condominium, homeowner (HOA), and townhome community associations in both the prosecution and defense of lawsuits. He also has extensive background in general insurance defense.

Christopher excels at advising clients on litigation strategies and reducing complex legal matters to understandable terms. He has skillfully represented clients through all phases of litigation including mediation, arbitration, bench and jury trials. Additionally, he has successfully handled a wide variety of matters, ranging from multi-million-dollar construction defect cases to defense of individual board members in breach of fiduciary duty lawsuits.

Christopher is licensed to practice law in Illinois and is a member of the Federal Bar. Further, he is an active member of the American Bar Association, the Chicago Bar Association, the Small Business Advocacy Council, and the Community Associations Institute (CAI). Christopher joined Kovitz Shifrin Nesbit in 2009 and has been a practicing attorney since 2003.
