

SABINA ARUTYUNYAN ATTORNEY

Community Association Law

Attorney Sabina Arutyunyan focuses her practice on the representation of condominium, homeowner (HOA), and town-home community associations.

Fluent in Russian, Sabina has used her previous industry experiences to work efficiently on behalf of her clients while also ensuring that they are receiving the best possible service and outcomes.

While in law school, Sabina was a law clerk for a United States Bankruptcy Trustee where she worked on Chapter 7 bankruptcies.

Following her clerking experience, Sabina was a Legal Intern in the tax/accounting and real estate law sectors. During that time, she attained experience with tax research and compliance, deeds and titles, land surveys, zoning issues, closing documents, and annual reports filings.

Sabina earned her Juris Doctorate from DePaul University College of Law. She attended Marquette University for undergraduate studies where she double majored in Psychology as well as Criminology and Law Studies.
