

JONATHAN J. CROWELL ATTORNEY

Community Association Law

Jonathan Crowell focuses his practice on the representation of condominium, homeowner, and town-home community associations.

He also practices in the area of transactional real estate, specifically, commercial property acquisitions and dispositions, with an emphasis in Section 15 condominium deconversions at KSN.

Jonathan's ambition for real estate law allows him to passionately and effectively serve clients in both Illinois and Indiana. His work experience in multiple areas of real estate law along with his educational experience puts him in a unique position to assist clients with a broad range of issues.

Prior to joining KSN as an Attorney, Jonathan was a Law Clerk in multiple KSN departments. As a clerk, he gained experience in the Condominium, Section 15, Litigation, Collections, Tax, and Housing/Employment departments. Jonathan also gained residential real estate transactions and zoning experience during his time as a clerk at Kolpak, Lerner and Greic.

Jonathan earned his Juris Doctorate from UIC School of Law and attended Arizona State University for undergraduate studies, where he majored in Political Science.

While attending UIC School of Law, Jonathan worked at the Community Enterprise and Solidarity Economy Clinic where he assisted clients in organizing their businesses that were focused on real estate developments. He also received the Order of John Marshall and Moot Court Honors Council awards while attending law school.
