

GEORGE PASKO Attorney

LandLord & Tenant Law

KSN attorney George Pasko has extensive experience in assisting Illinois and Wisconsin landlords and property managers with rental property issues including evictions, building code violations, commercial litigation, disputes (tenant, third party, vendor), and contract/lease review.

Prior to joining KSN, George

George worked for a Chicagoland law firm and operated a law office in Warsaw, Poland. During this time, he gained experience advising clients across different legal systems and working with both private and governmental entities.

George is also a member of the Advocate Society, a Chicago-based organization supporting Polish-American legal professionals and fostering connections between the U.S. and Polish legal communities.

George has been practicing law since 2008, beginning in Poland, and is licensed by the Illinois Supreme Court as both a Foreign Legal Consultant in 2018 and an attorney in 2020.
