

ANCY JOSE VARGHESE

ATTORNEY

Community Association Law

Attorney Ancy Jose Varghese focuses her practice on the representation of condominium, homeowner (HOA), and townhome community associations.

Before joining KSN, Ancy gained experience in immigration, family, probate, and international law. She previously worked at an immigration law firm, where she assisted with employment-based visas, asylum applications, removal proceedings, and appeals. Her experience includes working with business owners and entrepreneurs seeking to hire international employees and maintain business operations in the United States.

Ancy also worked at a family law and probate firm, where she assisted with dissolution of marriage proceedings, guardianships, adoptions, and estate administrations. Throughout her legal career, she has worked with clients from diverse international backgrounds, gaining experience reviewing foreign legal documents and addressing complex legal matters involving multiple jurisdictions.

While in law school, Ancy served as Lead Technical Editor on the executive editorial board of the ILSA Journal of International & Comparative Law.

Ancy earned her Juris Doctor from Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law, graduating with honors in 2024. She graduated with honors from Florida State University, where she double majored in Creative Writing and Humanities. During her undergraduate studies, Ancy was selected as a Presidential Scholar, a prestigious scholarship awarded to 25 students in recognition of outstanding academic achievement and extracurricular accomplishments.
