THOMAS O'BRIEN ATTORNEY

Property Tax Appeals

Attorney Thomas G. O'Brien focuses his practice on Illinois property tax assessment appeals, representing residential and commercial property owners seeking to challenge their property assessments and reduce their property tax burdens.

Prior to joining KSN, Tom provided legal representation to clients throughout the Chicago area in matters involving bankruptcy, debt-related issues, and general legal matters. He previously served as an Assistant Attorney General for the State of Illinois from 1998 to 2003.

With decades of legal experience, Tom brings extensive knowledge and a commitment to client service to his practice. Known for his professionalism and dedication, he strives to provide quality legal representation and achieve favorable outcomes for his clients.

Thomas earned his Juris Doctor from Cooley Law School and his Bachelor of Arts in Biological Science from Southern Illinois University Carbondale. He has been licensed to practice law in Illinois since 1997.
